

The Second Amador Film Festival is all set to open this Friday, April 17 with a gala premiere in Sutter Creek.

It will be followed by an all-day screening program

On Saturday, April 18.

All films will be shown at the Community Center Building, 33 Church Street.

The Festival is presented by the Amador County Arts Council, a non-profit organization, dedicated to bringing the arts to the county, including active support of programs in schools.

April 17, Opening Night, 6:30 Opening Night Party with hors d'oeuvres by Blue Moon Café and no host bar.

Followed by

North American Premiere

HOPE eternal

Scarred by years of abuse, Hope is a young Madagascan nurse who has dedicated her life to helping other abused street kids get well.

Through her humanitarian efforts Hope meets Evan, a Welsh doctor who wins over both her and her daughter Bantu's heart. When tragedy befalls Evan, Hope and Bantu embark on a journey to honor Evan's memory, encountering unexpected villains and heroes along the way.

Official UK entry foreign language film 2009

Admission:

Opening night $15.00 including hors d'oeuvres & no-host bar and Hope eternal

Individual screenings $5.00, students $2.50

Festival pass $25.00

Tickets: Coming Attractions, Main St., Sutter Creek or

Website: www.acaonline.com

Saturday, April 18

Hot dogs, popcorn, chips, and beverages will available will be available before and after all shows

2:00 p.m. A Fun-Filled Family Friendly? program of Cartoons, Animation and Live Action

5:00 p.m. The Flyboys (director Rocco DeVilliers)

Two kids from a small town accidentally stow away aboard an airplane owned by the mob. PG13

Starring: Jesse James, Reiley McClendon, Stephen Baldwin, Tom Sizemore

Check out the trailer

<http://www.theflyboysmovie.com>

8:00 p.m. Chores (director Sonnie Hamner)

A family in turmoil returns to the small town where the father had grown up. Their return to the countryside takes them into the middle of abuse and Satanic practices.

Not kid friendly

Starring Luke Goss (Hellboy 2) and Julie Anchor

Check out the trailer

<http://www.choresthemovie.info>